The order was communicated vide letter no 402 of 26.11.11 issued by CDPO, Madhubani-Piprasi 2. Heard all concerned and perused all the documents on record. 3. The charge against appellant was that she did not keep her anganwaadi center open and despite being issued showcause by CDPO, Madhubani vide letter no 176 dated 18.5.11 and 377 dated 9.11.11 the sevika continued to be careless towards her responsibilities, was found to be unauthorisedly absent and non punctual in running the centre. 4. The CDPO, Madhubani vide letter no 386 dated 12.11.11 recommended termination of the appellant with relevant papers. Perusal of the record indicates that show cause issued vide 176 dated 18.5.11 was received by Ashok sah on behalf of Tara devi. 5. The appellant submits that she has filed her reply on 20.5.11 in response to show cause issued by CDPO on 18.5.11. Further the notice dated 9.11.11 was made available on 9.11.11 only to the appellant, but she was terminated by DPO on 24.11.11 without any reasonable opportunity to be heard. 8. It is clear that the DPO, ICDS has passed the orders without giving the appellant an opportunity to be heard.

9. I therefore, set aside the order of of District Programme Officer, ICDS, West Champaran vide letter no 125 dated 14.11.2011 whereby the selection of appellant Tara Devi w/o Ashok sah. as anganwaadi sevika of Centre no 62, Shamsherwa Village was terminated and remand this matter to District Program Officer, West Champaran who shall issue notices to all concerned, hear them and pass a speaking order within one month.
